

All about Remembrance Day

Article 38

You have the right to protection from war

twinkl

We respect people who help us

When Is Remembrance Day?

Remembrance Day is on 11th November each year.

What Is Remembrance Day?

On Remembrance Day we think about all of the soldiers who have fought in wars to help to keep us safe.

What Happens on Remembrance Day?

At 11 o'clock on Remembrance Day, people stay silent for two minutes.

During this silence people remember all of the soldiers that have fought in wars.

Poppies

Poppies are flowers that help people to remember about the soldiers that have been injured or killed in lots of different wars.

Photo courtesy of Gerwin Filius (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Poppies

People wear paper poppies to show that they are thinking about the soldiers that have fought in the wars.

*Buying a poppy helps to raise money to take care of soldiers and their families.
Have you seen anybody wearing a poppy?*

Poppy Wreaths

People make poppy wreaths for Remembrance Day.

Photo courtesy of Lauren Kathy Turner (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Remembrance Day

On Remembrance Day, these poppy wreaths are placed on statues and monuments.

Photos courtesy of Laurence Harman, Captain Roger Fenton 1860 and flickr.annieandrew (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Remembrance Day Parades

Remembrance Day parades take place in lots of cities.

Men and women who have served in the military march to the monuments to lay a poppy wreath.

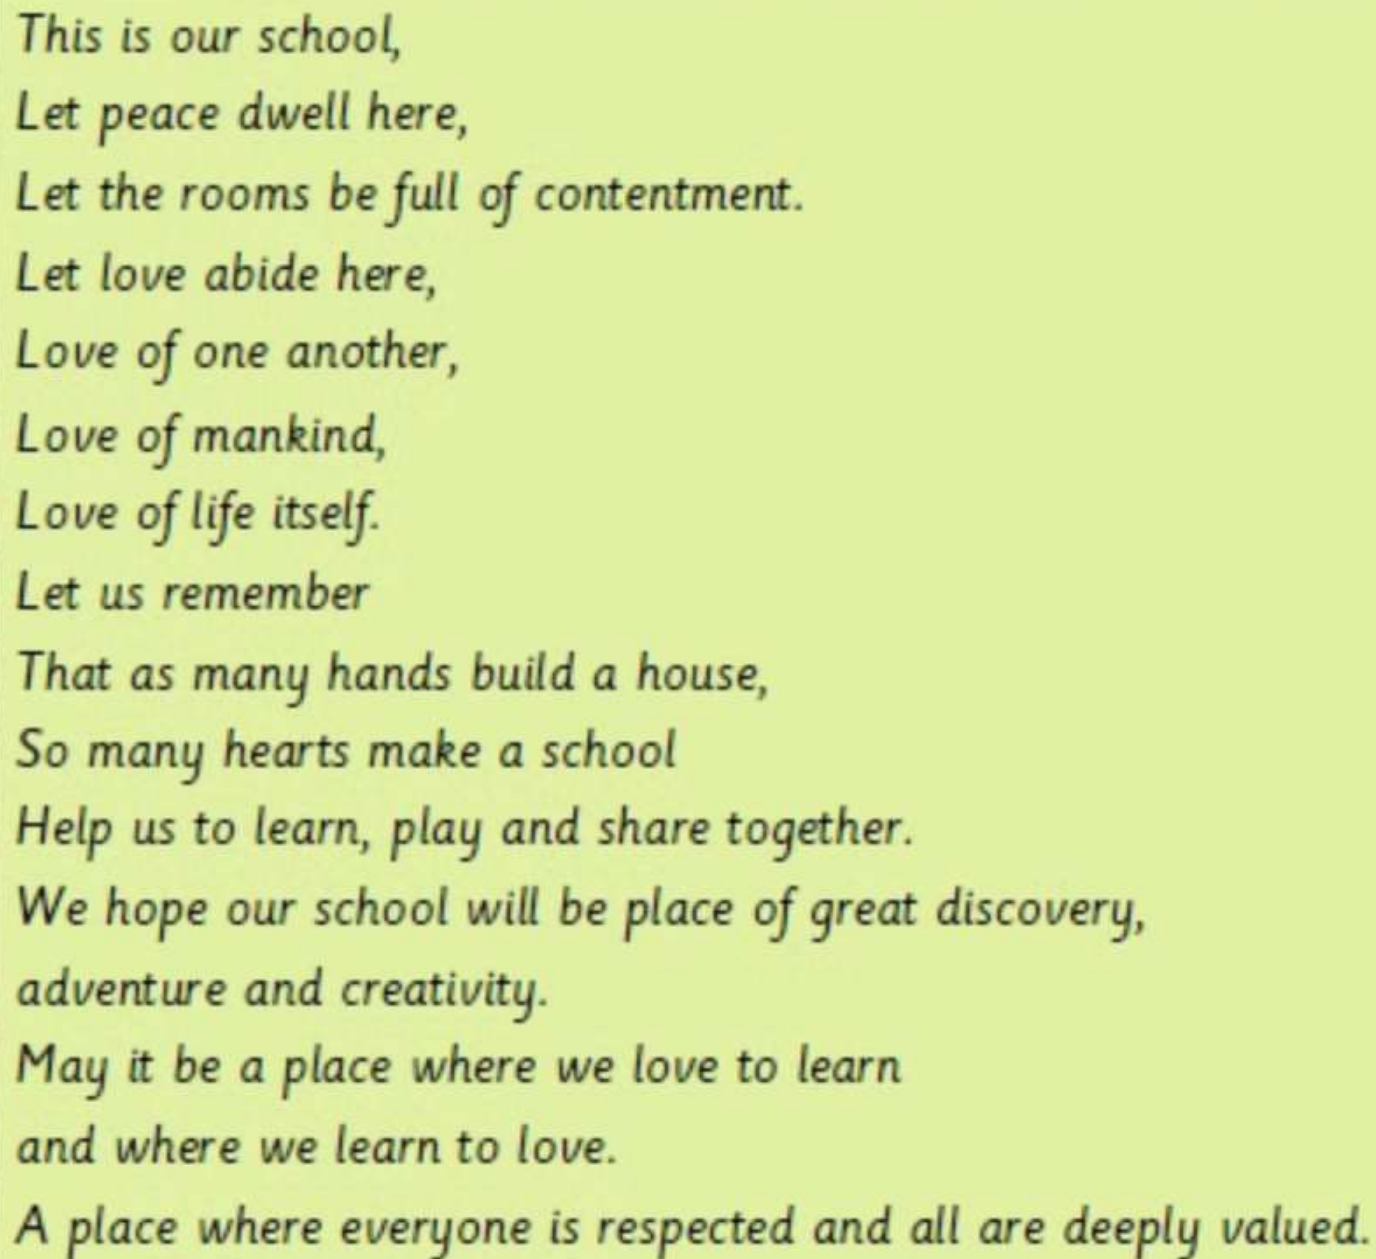

Photos courtesy of Paolo Cmaera and Lawrence Harman (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

What Do Children Think about Remembrance Day?

Why do you think it is sometimes called Poppy Day?

Photo courtesy of Lauren Cathy Turner (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

This is our school,
Let peace dwell here,
Let the rooms be full of contentment.
Let love abide here,
Love of one another,
Love of mankind,
Love of life itself.
Let us remember
That as many hands build a house,
So many hearts make a school
Help us to learn, play and share together.
We hope our school will be place of great discovery,
adventure and creativity.
May it be a place where we love to learn and where we learn to love.
A place where everyone is respected and all are deeply valued.