

“Learn. Believe. Achieve.”

History is brought to life in our classrooms through inspiring projects that are focused around aspirational figures from our past and present. We aim for our children to understand their place in history and recognise their own role in shaping the future. We have high ambition for our children to become confident historians who can transfer their skills to the wider world.